DID YOU KNOW?

Today we celebrate the martyr, St. Vitus. He is the patron of dancers, actors, against storms, nervous diseases and epilepsy. He is one of 14 Holy Helpers. According to popular legend, St. Vitus was a young Sicilian who, when he was about 12, was converted to the Christian faith and baptized without his parents' knowledge. He was tortured for his faith and was known as a miracle worker. His relics were translated in 836 to Saxony (in Germany), and the Germans became very devoted to him.
