Corpus Christi Speaker Needed!

We are looking for an energetic student who would be willing to take the summer and study the complete works of Victor E Frankl and give an hour long presentation at one of our Corpus Christi nights. We will provide all the books of his in English. They are relatively light and easy reading. Please contact Cory Noeker for more details if you are interested or may know someone who would be a good fit. His area of study was on the meaning of life, and is the one known as the founder of Logotherapy (Man's Search for Meaning).

Freshmen and Returning Students Retreat:

We are planning on having a retreat for the students before the school year starts. We have been looking at staying in a retreat spot at Cranhill near Big Rapids. If anyone is interested in registering please email Cory Noeker.

Welcome Our New Pastor:

On July 2nd Fr. Patrick Jankowiak will arrive at St. Mary University Parish as your new pastor. Fr. Patrick is presently the pastor of Our Lady of Peace Parish in Bay City. Fr. Patrick is a native of the Saginaw Diocese with his home parish being Blessed Sacrament in Midland. I invite you to welcome Fr. Patrick Jankowiak as your new pastor.

ST. JUNIPERO SERRA (MISSIONARY)

Traditionally, we celebrated the Feast of the Most Precious Blood on this day. In our calendar today we remember St. Junipero Serra. Miguel Jose Serra was born on the island of Majorca on November 24, 1713, and took the name of Junipero when in 1730, he entered the Franciscan Order. Ordained in 1737, he taught philosophy and theology at the University of Padua until 1749. At the age of thirty-seven, he landed in Mexico City on January 1, 1750, and spent the rest of his life working for the conversion of the peoples of the New World. He founded twenty-one missions and converted thousands of Indians. (catholic.org)

Up at the front of our sanctuary, we have two missionary saints, St. Thérèse of Lisieux and St. Francis of Xavier. In light of there accomplishments, let us reflect and ask what it is God is calling us to do as missionaries on the campus at CMU.

DID YOU KNOW?

871 "The Christian faithful are those who, inasmuch as they have been incorporated in Christ through Baptism, have been constituted as the people of God; for this reason, since they have become sharers in Christ's priestly, prophetic, and royal office in their own manner, they are called to exercise the mission which God has entrusted to the Church to fulfill in the world, in accord with the condition proper to each one."

873 The very differences which the Lord has willed to put between the members of his body serve its unity and mission. For "in the Church there is diversity of ministry but unity of mission. To the apostles and their successors Christ has entrusted the office of teaching, sanctifying and governing in his name and by his power. But the laity are made to share in the priestly, prophetic, and kingly office of Christ; they have therefore, in the Church and in the world, their own assignment in the mission of the whole People of God."³⁸⁷ Finally, "from both groups [hierarchy and laity] there exist Christian faithful who are consecrated to God in their own special manner and serve the salvific mission of the Church through the profession of the evangelical counsels."
